

Detail Detective

Name: _____

Story/Book: _____

Instructions: A good detective never misses important details. Check your reading investigation skills by filling in facts about the story you read. What sights did the characters see? What did they hear? Did they smell or taste anything? What did they touch or feel? Where did they go? Write in your facts, and compare with another detective in your class.

 What do they see?
 What do they hear?
 What do they smell?
 What do they taste?
 What do they touch?
 Where do they go?

For more free organizers for download and learning tips visit:

www.learningdisabilities.about.com

©2007 About, Inc., A part of The New York Times Company. All rights reserved.